

What is Adult Protective and Community Services (APS)?

APS receives and investigates reports of abuse to vulnerable adults

APS provides short-term services to protect the health, safety and welfare of vulnerable adults who have been abused, neglected, or financially exploited

APS Goals
Safety:
Remedy the abuse, neglect, and/or exploitation of a vulnerable adult exploitation of a volherable adult Stabilize:
the situation through counseling and/or support services
Respect:
the individual's right to self-determination
me mamacar singmire sen determination
Definition of Capacity
Hawaii Revised Statutes Chapter 346-222 defines "capacity" as:
THE ABILITY TO UNDERSTAND AND APPRECIATE THE NATURE AND CONSEQUENCES OF MAKING DECISIONS CONCERNING ONE'S PERSON OR TO COMMUNICATE THESE DECISIONS
V
V v
V
V
V
V
V
V
V
V
V
V
Capacity
Capacity
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or Capacity If copacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-246)
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240)
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240) The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240) The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240) The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240) The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240) The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240). The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS).
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240). The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS).
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240). The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS).
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240). The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS).
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240). The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS).
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240). The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS).
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240). The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS).
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240). The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS).
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240). The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS).
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240). The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS).
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240). The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS).
If capacity is at issue, the vulnerable adult must be examined by a psychiatrist or qualified physician (HRS 346-240). The court shall also make a finding concerning the capacity of the vulnerable adult to effectively make decisions concerning personal needs or property (HRS).

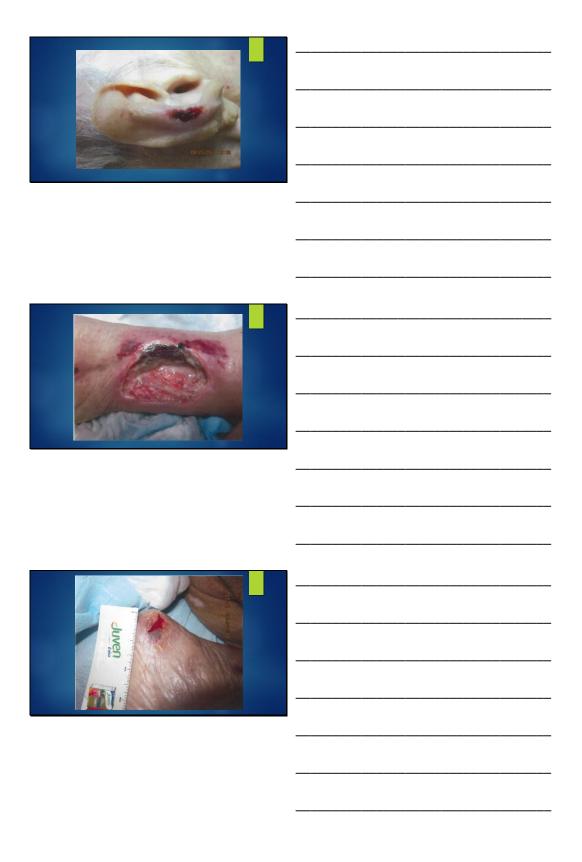

Definition of Vulnerable Adult Age 18 or older, and Has a mental, developmental or physical impairment, and Communicate or make responsible decisions to manage person's own care or resources, or Carry out or arrange for essential activities of daily living, or Definition of Abuse Definition of Self-Neglect

Definition of Caregiver Neglect Assist with personal hygiene Protect the vulnerable adult from abandonment Provide in a timely manner necessary food, shelter or clothing Provide in a timely manner necessary health care, access to healthcare, prescribed medication, psychological care, physical care, or supervision Protect the vulnerable adult from dangerous, harmful or detrimental drugs Protect the vulnerable adult from health and safety hazards Protect the vulnerable adult from abuse by third parties

Definition of Financial Exploitation Breach of a fiduciary duty, such as: V. Misuse of a power of attorney or the misuse of guardianthip privileges: resulting in the unauthorized appropriation, sale, or transfer of property. V. The unauthorized taking of personal assets. In June 2007, Act 94 was enacted into law (HRS 412), whereby financial institutions are mandated to file a report with APS of suspected financial exploitation of an elder who is 62 years of age or older The property layer (1988). The property layer (1988) and the property control of the property control Changes to HRS 412 On June 27, 2013, the Governor signed Act 216, which now mandated financial institutions to report suspected financial abuse of an elder to the Department of Human Services (APS) and the appropriate County Police Department

Manipulation Threats Intimidation Definition of Psychological Abuse

Definition of Sexual Abuse Non-consensual sexual contact or conduct caused by another person, including, but not limited to: ✓ Sexual assault ✓ Molestation ✓ Sexual fondling ✓ Incest ✓ Or pornographic photographing, filming or depiction Investigation Process ✓ Assigned to a social worker, nurse, assistant, and auditor (for financial cases) ✓ Unannounced visits; will attempt to go more than once. Speak to the victim and perpetrator separately ✓ Ensure safety, stability, right to self-determination ✓ Order for immediate protection (OIP) ✓ Legal Guardianship (for vulnerable adult who lacks capacity) Per HRS 346-229, Right of Entry: APS may request the assistance of a police officer for a warrantiess entry to ascertain the vulnerable adult's welfare HONOLULU APS will report to police or the Department of the Attorney General, and Medicaid Fraud Control Unit, when APS suspects that a crime has been committed POLICE

Mandated Reporters State law requires certain professionals to report vulnerable adult abuse (HRS Chapter 346, Part X) All personnel in: Social Services Law Enforcement Health care Medical Examiners or Coroners