

Child & Family
SERVICE

A private nonprofit serving Hawai'i since 1899

Mana'olana (Hope) Program

Stock photo. Posed by models.

The Mana'olana (Hope) Program offers free comprehensive case management and outreach to all children and families who are survivors of human trafficking. The program also screens/assesses the risk of human trafficking and provides linkages to community resources through a culturally responsive approach.

Eligibility:

Families of Indigenous descent (American Indians, Alaska Natives, Native Hawaiians and/or Pacific Islanders) who identify as a victim or at risk of human trafficking, residing in Waimanalo community, on the Island of O'ahu.

Services:

- Trafficking Screening
- Assessment
- Service Planning
- Linkages to Resources and Community Providers
- Safety Planning
- Community outreach and training
- Trainings on human trafficking for community partners

Please call or text Child & Family Service at 808.354.8291 or 808.953.9669 for more information, a referral form, or to enroll in program services.

Completed referral forms can be faxed to 808.532.5106

Once referral is received, the referral source shall receive a confirmation within 24-hours of receipt.

This product was produced by Child & Family Service and supported by the Administration of children and Families Act (ACF) of the United States (U.S.) Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), Office on Trafficking in Persons (OTIP; grant number 90TV0036-01-00 DHHS ACFVHT-NC) as a part of a financial assistance award totaling $260,000 annually with 100 percent funded by ACF/HHS. The contents are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement, by ACF/HHS, or the U.S. Government. For more information, please visit the ACF website, Administrative and National Policy Requirements. The National Human Trafficking Hotline provides confidential, toll-free, 24-hours/7 days a week assistance to victims in crisis through safety planning, emotional support, and connections to local resources. To access the hotline, please call 1-888-373-7888.